

HAPPENINGS

EXHIBITIONS

THROUGH FEBRUARY 1

The Menil Collection in Houston, Texas, presents Experiments with Truth: Gandhi and Images of Nonviolence. The exhibition features approximately 130 works spanning several centuries, including paintings, drawings, photographs, prints, sculptures, rare books, and films by artists from Africa, the Americas, Asia, and Europe.
 Website: menil.org

THROUGH FEBRUARY 15

The exhibition Killer Heels: The Art of the High-Heeled Shoe, will be on display at the Brooklyn Museum in Brooklyn, New York, through February 15. Killer Heels explores fashion's most provocative accessory. From the high platform chopines of 16th century Italy to the glamorous stilettos on today's runways and red carpets, this exhibition looks at the high-heeled shoe's rich and varied history and its enduring place in our popular imagination.
 Website: brooklynmuseum.org

THROUGH MARCH 8

The Museum of Fine Arts in Boston, Massachusetts, presents Hollywood Glamour Fashion and Jewelry from the Silver Screen. The exhibition features designer gowns and exquisite jewelry from the most glamorous years of Hollywood filmmaking. Visit the website for more information.
 Website: mfa.org

THROUGH MARCH 15

The Museum of Arts and Design in New York, New York, presents Neckpieces and Sculptures by Joyce J. Scott. The exhibition features 34 of Joyce's neckpieces, 3 beaded wall hangings, and 13 glass sculptures. Visit the website for more information.
 Website: madmuseum.org

THROUGH APRIL 5

The Philadelphia Museum of Art in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, presents

the first major solo exhibition in Philadelphia of Puerto Rico-based artists Jennifer Allora and Guillermo Calzadilla. The exhibition presents a selection of recent projects, most of which have never been shown in the United States. Visit the website for more information.

Website: philamuseum.org

JANUARY 17-APRIL 4

The San Antonio Museum of Art in San Antonio, Texas, presents Ancient to Modern: Contemporary Japanese Ceramics and their Sources. Visit the website for more information.

Website: samuseum.org

JANUARY 28-29

The 2015 Jewelry History Series will take place at the Original Miami Beach Antique Show in Miami Beach, Florida. The series is an educational conference about the history of jewelry during select time periods and will include a tour of museums in the Miami area. This event is open to retailers, wholesalers, appraisers, new collectors, old collectors, or anyone with an interest in learning about the history of jewelry.

Website: originalmiamibeachantiqueshow.com

FEBRUARY 10-APRIL 25

The Fashion Institute of Design and Merchandising in Los Angeles, California, presents their 23rd annual Art of Motion Picture Costume Design Exhibition. See in person costumes from some of the biggest films from 2014. Visit the website for more information.

Website: fidmmuseum.org

MARCH 12-15

The RAGS Wearable Art Sale and Gallery will take place in Tacoma, Washington, at the Mercedes-Benz of Tacoma showroom. RAGS gives a portion of proceeds from the sale to YWCA Pierce County's domestic violence prevention programs, and has raised over a million dollars in its 20-year history. View and purchase clothing, jewelry, and accessories created by artisans from across the country. Visit the website for more information.

Website: ragswearableart.org

Visit The Vintage Marketplace at the "Oaks" in Fallbrook, California for their 2015 shows. Have the chance to buy from over 60 vendors selling their vintage home and garden finds, repurposed jewelry, clothing, and more.

March 13-15

June 5-7

September 11-13

December 4-6

Website: thevintagemarketplaceattheoaks.blogspot.com

MAY 17-30

Bali Fiber Tours in Indonesia is a trip of a lifetime for a fiber lover. Experience fully-guided hands-on textile tours, t'jap and t'janting batik, silk batik painting, indigo dyeing, shopping, cooking, and more.

Website: balifibertours.com

JUNE 26-AUGUST 30

Join the Art-A-Fair Fine Art Festival for their 2015 season in Laguna Beach, California. See the work of 125 featured artists, participate in daily art classes, and enjoy live entertainment. Don't miss out on one the most prestigious art festivals in California!

Website: art-a-fair.com

AUGUST 25-JANUARY 10, 2016

The Museum of Fine Arts in Boston, Massachusetts, presents Objects in Flux: Exploring the Boundaries of Craft. The exhibition features 30 international artists, each of whom explore the increasingly blurred boundaries between art, craft, and design. Visit the website for more information.

Website: mfa.org

