

The Original Miami Beach Antique Show to Relocate

The Original Miami Beach Antique Show is moving in 2017. U.S. Antique Shows announced that because of the impending closure of the Miami Beach Convention Center for renovations, the show will be held at the Miami-Dade County Fair Expo Center, February 10-13, 2017.

“After extensive research of existing and proposed venues in southeast Florida’s major metropolitan areas, in 2017 U.S. Antique Shows will relocate The Original Miami Beach Antique Show to the Miami-Dade County Fair Expo Center from its previous home for 55 years,” said Dan Darby, Emerald Expositions’ vice president and U.S. Antique Shows’ general manager in a news release. “Compared to other facilities that we considered, the Fair Expo Center had many more benefits for our show, including 4500 free parking spaces, a convenient and easy location less than ten miles from Coral Gables, and ample room to offer free truck parking for dealers.”

The 80-acre Fair Expo Center features four exhibit halls with multiple entry points for attendees, which will also allow a faster and easier move-in for dealers.
