

Jewelry History Series Returns with a Special Opportunity for Conference Attendees

MIAMI, FL – U.S. Antique Shows recently announced that they will be hosting the Third Annual Jewelry History Series prior to the start of The Original Miami Beach Antique Show Thursday, Jan. 28, 2016. The jewelry conference, Jan. 26-27, 2016, will consist of educational sessions from notable jewelry speakers as well as a special screening of the award-winning documentary, Sharing The Rough.

The documentary captures the never before seen process of mine to market in the fine gem industry including the relationships and passion that make jewelry more than just pretty stones. Series attendees will take a trip to the local movie theater, Cinematheque, for a private screening of the film followed by a Q&A with Director Orin Mazzoni.

The conference is open to retailers, wholesalers, appraisers, seasoned and novice collectors, as well as anyone with an interest in learning about the history of antique jewelry.

Both days of the conference attendees will enjoy a continental breakfast sponsored by Skinner, Inc. and there will be a networking reception sponsored by one of the shows preeminent jewelry dealers, Lenore Dailey. Food and drinks will be served.

Series attendees will also be among the first to see The Original Miami Beach Antique Show before it opens with a tour of select jewelry exhibitor booths. During this tour, attendees will preview the magnificent pieces available for purchase.

For a complete schedule, descriptions of the sessions and to register, visit www.miamibeachantiqueshow.com.

